AUCTION SALE A SUCCESS.

The auction sale of Manhattan Beach property was one of the most successful conducted in or about New York for some time, and might be construed as a reflection of the public wants. Four hundred lots and six houses were sold to bidders who showed a keen interest in bidders who showed a keen interest in the proceeding, and took the entire offering in less than five hours. Revised figures show a total of $557,475 was realized. Of this $66,150 represented the proceeds from the houses, an average of $11,000 each. The sales of lots, exclusive of those included with the houses, netted an average of $1,000 each. Actual prices ranged from $850 to $1,750. The higher price was obtained for lots on Corbin place between the Esplanade and Oriental boulevard. A corner plot of five lots at Corbin place and Oriental boulevard $6,750. and Oriental boulevand brought $6,750.

Thislide lots on Beaumont street brought $900, while lots directly on the Esplanade sold for $1,500 each.
